City of Rosemead City Council Approves Urgency Ordinance Prohibiting Evictions Related to COVID-19

On March 16, 2020, Governor Gavin Newsom issued an executive order that authorizes local governments to halt evictions for renters and homeowners, slows foreclosures, and protects against utility shutoffs for Californians affected by COVID-19.

Subsequently, on March 24, 2020, the City of Rosemead City Council approved Urgency Ordinance No. 993, temporarily prohibiting the evictions of residential and commercial tenants arising from income loss or substantial medical expenses related to the COVID-19 Pandemic. To reveal the heart of this action and approved Ordinance, City of Rosemead Mayor Sandra Armenta stated, "By approving this ordinance, we are aiding those residents facing financial hardship due to the COVID-19 pandemic. In addition, helping the business community, which has been greatly affected."

The below is a summary only. It does not replace or override the application of Urgency Ordinance 993. To view the City's adopted ordinance, please visit the City website.

• Temporary Urgency Ordinance allows qualified tenants to defer in whole or in part rental payments currently due and which will come due until May 31st (unless extended), for up to 6 months from the rent due date if the tenant can demonstrate an inability to pay due to COVID-19 financial impacts. Rent will be payable in full prior to the end of the 6 months.

• Residential and commercial tenants must notify landlords in writing (including by email or text) that they cannot pay some of all of their rent and they must provide documents showing they have suffered a substantial financial impact related to COVID-19

• Financial Impacts related to COVID-19 include:

o A substantial decrease in household income caused by layoffs or a reduction in the number of compensable hours of work, or a substantial decrease in business income caused by a reduction in opening hours or consumer demand), or substantial out-of-pocket medical expenses if related to COVID-19

o A Tenant's lost household income as a result of caring for minor children affected by school, pre-school and/or childcare closures also related to COVID-19

• *The Ordinance only applies to "no-fault eviction notices" and permissible COVID-19 related failure to pay rent and not if a tenant is violating other terms of the lease such as conducting illegal activities.

• If a tenant provides proper notice and documentation as required by the Ordinance a landlord may not act to evict the tenant during the effective date of the Ordinance.

• If a landlord violates the Ordinance it provides a defense to the tenant in an unlawful detainer action. The City does not enforce the Ordinance.

Face Coverings, Things to Try While Physical Distancing and Incident Report

The County of Los Angeles is regularly updating resources on COVID-19 and offers today's update in an effort to keep you and yours informed. Please share the following up-to-date information:

ICYMI: Face Covering Guidance

Whenever you are leaving your home to procure or provide essential services, either in public or in private settings, LA County is asking residents to please wear a clean cloth face covering at all times.

Face coverings are not a substitute for our most powerful tools to slow the spread of COVID-19: staying home and practicing physical distancing – staying six feet away from all people – at all times. However, face coverings can:

- help prevent you from infecting others; and
- help save medical masks for healthcare workers or other essential workers that take care of people who are sick - or may be in contact with people who may be sick

If you are already using cloth face coverings while out and about, thank you for taking this step to slow the spread of COVID-19. If you aren't, help us save lives by doing so.

Attorney General Becerra Issues Consumer Alert Regarding False Advertising Related to Coronavirus

SACRAMENTO – California Attorney General Xavier Becerra today issued a consumer alert about deceptive advertising related to novel coronavirus — or COVID-19 — in California. Attorney General Becerra reminds all Californians to be mindful of any products or services that falsely claim to treat, diagnose, prevent, or cure COVID-19. According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the World Health Organization, there is no vaccine to prevent COVID-19, nor is there a medicine that treats or cures coronavirus.

“Do not be hustled by opportunistic tricksters claiming to have a miracle cure. There is not a cure for COVID-19,” said Attorney General Becerra. “Californians should take preventative measures to stop further spread of coronavirus, such as washing their hands, refraining from touching their face, avoiding large groups, and staying at home as much as possible. I encourage anyone who has been the victim of a snake oil scam or who otherwise has information about products that are falsely touted as coronavirus treatments, tests, or cures to immediately file a complaint through my office’s website at <http://oag.ca.gov/report>.”

California’s consumer protection laws — including the Unfair Competition Law, False Advertising Law and Consumers Legal Remedies Act — prohibit false, deceptive, or misleading advertising, including any advertising that explicitly claims or implies that a product treats the coronavirus. A statement does not have to be literally false to be illegal; any claim that is likely to mislead a consumer may result in action by the Attorney General’s Office. Compliance with federal requirements or industry standards is not a defense to liability under California law.

In addition, Attorney General Becerra reminds all Californians that, under Penal Code Section 396, price gouging is illegal in all California communities during the declared state of emergency. California law generally prohibits charging a price that exceeds, by more than 10 percent, the price of an item before a state or local declaration of emergency. This law applies to the prices of certain goods or services when a declared state of emergency results in disruptions of the market, including with respect to food, emergency and medical supplies, and other consumer goods. Exceptions to this prohibition exist if, for example, the price of labor, goods, or materials has increased for the business.

Violators of the price gouging statute are subject to criminal prosecution that can result in a one-year imprisonment in county jail and/or a fine of up to $10,000. Violators are also subject to civil enforcement actions including civil penalties of up to $2,500 per violation, injunctive relief, and mandatory restitution. The Attorney General and local district attorneys can enforce the statute.

For the latest in coronavirus preparedness, information, and response, please visit the websites of the California Department of Public Health, Office of Governor Gavin Newsom, and Office of Emergency Services. If you are a worker or employer who has been affected by COVID-19, you can find guidance and resources on the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency’s website.

Tax Day now July 15: Treasury, IRS extend filing deadline and federal tax payments regardless of amount owed

WASHINGTON – The Treasury Department and Internal Revenue Service announced today that the federal income tax filing due date is automatically extended from April 15, 2020, to July 15, 2020.

Taxpayers can also defer federal income tax payments due on April 15, 2020, to July 15, 2020, without penalties and interest, regardless of the amount owed. This deferment applies to all taxpayers, including individuals, trusts and estates, corporations and other non-corporate tax filers as well as those who pay self-employment tax.

Taxpayers do not need to file any additional forms or call the IRS to qualify for this automatic federal tax filing and payment relief. Individual taxpayers who need additional time to file beyond the July 15 deadline, can request a filing extension by filing Form 4868 through their tax professional, tax software or using the Free File link on IRS.gov. Businesses who need additional time must file Form 7004.

The IRS urges taxpayers who are due a refund to file as soon as possible. Most tax refunds are still being issued within 21 days.

“Even with the filing deadline extended, we urge taxpayers who are owed refunds to file as soon as possible and file electronically,” said IRS Commissioner Chuck Rettig. “Filing electronically with direct deposit is the quickest way to get refunds. Although we are curtailing some operations during this period, the IRS is continuing with mission-critical operations to support the nation, and that includes accepting tax returns and sending refunds. As a federal agency vital to the overall operations of our country, we ask for your personal support, your understanding – and your patience. I’m incredibly proud of our employees as we navigate through numerous different challenges in this very rapidly changing environment.”

The IRS will continue to monitor issues related to the COVID-19 virus, and updated information will be posted on a special coronavirus page on IRS.gov.

This announcement comes following the President’s emergency declaration last week pursuant to the Stafford Act. The Stafford Act is a federal law designed to bring an orderly and systematic means of federal natural disaster and emergency assistance for state and local governments in carrying out their responsibilities to aid citizens. It was enacted in 1988.

Treasury and IRS will issue additional guidance as needed and continue working with Congress, on a bipartisan basis, on legislation to provide further relief to the American people.

Trash guidelines to prevent spread of COVID-19

Effective March 30, 2020, to protect workers and residents from COVID-19, please follow these steps:

1. Please postpone bulky item requests until further notice.
2. We will collect cart contents only. Trash placed outside containers will not be collected. Call to order an extra cart if you have extra waste.
3. Recycling and yard waste service remain in place. Do not put trash in recycling or yard waste carts.

Update on Services During COVID – 19 Pandemic From Andrew Saul, Commissioner of Social Security

“I want you to hear directly from me how the COVID-19 pandemic is affecting our services. The first thing you should know is that we continue to pay benefits. Be aware that scammers may try to trick you into thinking the pandemic is stopping your Social Security payments but that is not true. Don’t be fooled.

To protect you and help stop the spread of this coronavirus, we cannot accept visitors in our offices at this time. There are several other ways you can get help. Many services are available online at www.socialsecurity.gov. If you have a critical need that you cannot address online, we can help you over the phone.

Please visit our COVID-19 web page at www.socialsecurity.gov/coronavirus/ to find out what services we are continuing and which ones we are suspending, how to contact us, and important information about deadlines we are extending to ease the burden on you and medical providers during this pandemic.”

PUBLIC ALERTS ON
COVID-19 SCAMS, FRAUDULENT WEBSITES,
EMAILS AND DONATION REQUESTS

Rosemead, CA – Residents are advised that there have been reports of COVID-19 scams, malicious websites, email schemes, donation solicitations, and suspicious links that have come to the attention of law enforcement and public officials.

The Los Angeles County Chief Information Officer Williams Kehoe stated, "Malicious actors can prey upon those that are distracted by the COVID-19 pandemic and use it to their advantage. The Public needs to be mindful and careful, and avoid websites, phishing emails, and scams that engage people through false information about health crisis and steal personal user information and data. By clicking on fraudulent weblinks, hackers can deliver malware and then gain access to passwords, browsing information, credit card numbers, and other personal information. We all need to stay vigilant." Residents should also be careful of hackers impersonating public officials and service companies trying to gain your personal information.

Precautionary measures to protect yourself from scams related to COVID-19:

- Independently verify the identity of any company, charity, or individual that contacts you regarding COVID-19.
- Check the websites and email addresses offering information, products, or services related to COVID-19. Be aware that scammers often employ addresses that differ only slightly from those belonging to the entities they are impersonating. For example, they might use "cdc.com" or "cdc.org" instead of "cdc.gov".
- Be wary of unsolicited emails offering information, supplies, or treatment for COVID-19 or requesting your personal information for medical purposes. Legitimate health authorities will not contact the general public this way.
- Do not click on links or open email attachments from unknown or unverified sources. Doing so could download a virus onto your computer or device.
- Make sure the anti-malware and anti-virus software on your computer is operating and up to date.
- Research any charities site soliciting donations in connection with COVID-19 before giving any donation. For online resources on donating, visit the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) website: www.ftc.gov
- Be wary of any business, charity, or individual requesting payments or donations in cash, by wire transfer, gift card, or through the mail. Don't send money through any of these channels.

Frequently Asked Questions

- (1): Q: Is there clarity on which businesses can stay open and which must be closed under the Governor's "stay home" order and the LA County "Safer at Home" order?
 - A: Yes, both orders have clear definitions of what businesses are considered "essential" and can still be open.
 - See www.covid19.ca.gov for Governor's order
 - See www.publichealth.lacounty.gov for LA County order
- (2): Q: Will State Taxes be deferred?
 - A: Governor Newsom issued an executive order delaying the deadline for state tax filing by 60 days for individuals and businesses unable to file on time based on compliance with public health requirements related to COVID-19 filings.
- (3): Q: Is there financial assistance for landlords who suffer a loss of income as a result of tenants' inability to pay their rent?
 - A: Landlords may be able to apply for a disaster loan related to economic damage from the Coronavirus crisis through the Small Business Administration: disasterloan.sba.gov/ela. Taxpayers who are unable to pay their property taxes by April 10th because of the COVID-19 pandemic can request for penalty cancellation starting April 11th.
- (4): Q: What are the guidelines for landlords and property managers?
 - A: Work with tenants during the eviction moratorium period; communicate with the tenant about their ability to pay; do not ignore the eviction moratorium in place. Tenants are still obligated to pay lawfully charged rent.
- (5): Q: What help is available for non-profits?
 - A: Senate Bill 89 specifies non-profits will benefit from state funding allocations directly. In addition, there is more funding available through the Federal Stimulus Bill.
- (6): Q: Where can small businesses find resources to stay solvent?
 - A: The new, comprehensive state website www.covid19.ca.gov has resources to help small businesses.
 - Information is on the www.covid19.ca.gov website.
- (7): Q: What does the Federal Stimulus Bill entail for small businesses?
 - A: The income tax return due date for calendar year corporations has been extended to July 15. Tax returns and any income taxes owed will not be due until July 15.
 - Refundable tax credits are available for private-sector employers that are required to offer coronavirus related paid leave to employees.
 - The employer side of certain payroll taxes are deferred through the end of 2020. Deferred taxes will not become due until end of 2021 and end of 2022, with 50% of the liability being paid at each date.
 - An employee retention tax credit is available for struggling businesses that are not eligible or choose not to participate in the new SBA Paycheck Protection Program.
 - Any business that has been forced to fully or partially suspend operations, or that has seen a significant drop in revenues is eligible for a 50-percent credit for wages paid to furloughed or reduced-hour employees.
 - $350 billion is made available for a new Small Business Administration Paycheck Protection Program (PPP). The program would provide cash-flow assistance through 100 percent federally guaranteed loans to employers who maintain their payroll during this emergency.
 - If employers maintain their payroll, the loans would be forgiven, which would help workers remain employed, as well as help affected small businesses and our economy to snap-back quicker after the crisis.
 - $17 billion is available for immediate relief to small businesses with non-disaster SBA loans, in particular 7(a), 504, and microloans.
 - The Federal Stimulus Bill, otherwise known as the CARES ACT provided additional assistance for small business owners and non-profits, including the opportunity to get up to a $10,000 Advance on an Economic Injury Disaster Loan.
 - This Advance may be available even if your Disaster Loan application was declined or is still pending, and will be forgiven.
 - If you wish to apply for the Advance on your Disaster Loan, please visit www.SBA.gov/Disaster as soon as possible to fill out a new, streamlined application.
 - In order to qualify you need to submit this new application even if you previously submitted a Disaster Loan application.
 - Applying will not impact the status or slow your existing application.

Business Interruption Insurance

Q: I Have a Business And Carry Commercial Insurance, But My Insurer Won't Cover A Claim Related To Covid-19. Is There Anything I Can Do?

If you have business interruption coverage, whether or not your policy covers lost income caused by COVID-19 will depend on the terms of your policy. Most insurance policies are not intended to cover epidemics or pandemics. Business interruption coverage is intended to compensate the business owner after the covered property suffers physical damage, such as a fire. Insurers may deny a claim if the policyholder cannot show that their physical property was damaged. Some policies also specifically exclude losses caused by viruses or bacteria. You should read your policy very carefully and identify the applicable terms. Coverage may differ depending on the insurer, the type of business covered, and other terms in the policy that might apply.

Q: My policy includes coverage for when a government official won't allow access to the property. Will that apply?

Many policies include coverage that applies when a civil authority prohibits access to the covered premises. This is more common when a civil authority issues an evacuation order or sets up a roadblock. Terms may require that some nearby property, such as property located within one mile of the covered property, suffer physical damage. Also, coverage might only apply if the civil authority prohibits access to the property because of a present danger or because the authority needed unimpeded access. Advisory or voluntary orders might not trigger coverage.

How much would a claim pay?

That will depend on the amount of covered losses and any deductibles, coinsurance, dollar limits, time limits, and other applicable terms. Your declarations page should list most of these items. You may wish to assess how much you will be claiming against those terms. Although the losses might be great, these limitations will lower any recovery. Some coverage only pay 72 hours after a covered event begins. In some circumstances, losses might not exceed the deductible. Check policy terms and, if you do file a claim, be prepared to provide financial documentation supporting your losses.

Where Can I Get More Information?

You may wish to speak with an attorney. Be ready to share a complete copy of your policy.

For free assistance, the California Department of Insurance has also posted helpful information about this type of claim in its FAQ on business interruption insurance (<http://www.insurance.ca.gov/01-consumers/140-catastrophes/FAQ-on-Business-Interruption-Insurance.cfm>). If you have a question or believe that your claim has been wrongly denied, you may contact the Department of Insurance at (800) 927-4357 or through its website at www.insurance.ca.gov.

Scheduled Power Outages

We understand that many people and families are responsibly staying home to prevent the spread of the virus, based on Gov. Newsom's "Safer at Home" order.

To support our customers and prevent larger outages from occurring in the future, critical work is being performed to address emergency and public safety issues such as wildfire mitigation or areas where we've determined equipment is near failure, even as we postpone less urgent upgrades. Our teams are working to reduce the impact of critical work as much as possible.

During these difficult times, only outages necessary to reduce public safety and wildfire risk will go forward. Non-critical work is being postponed, and each outage is being evaluated on a case-by-case basis. Any decision to proceed is not taken lightly. Thank you for your support as we work to keep our communities safe.

COVID-19 LA County Response Fund

EMPLOYEE RIGHTS

PAID SICK LEAVE AND EXPANDED FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE UNDER THE FAMILIES FIRST CORONAVIRUS RESPONSE ACT

The Families First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA or Act) requires certain employers to provide their employees with paid sick leave and expanded family and medical leave for specified reasons related to COVID-19. These provisions will apply from April 1, 2020 through December 31, 2020.

PAID LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

Generally, employers covered under the Act must provide employees:

Up to two weeks (80 hours, or a part-time employee's two-week equivalent) of paid sick leave based on the higher of their regular rate of pay, or the applicable state or Federal minimum wage, paid at:

- 100% for qualifying reasons #1-3 below, up to $511 daily and $5,110 total;
- ⅔ for qualifying reasons #4 and 6 below, up to $200 daily and $2,000 total; and
- Up to 12 weeks of paid sick leave and expanded family and medical leave paid at ⅓ for qualifying reason #5 below for up to $200 daily and $12,000 total.

A part-time employee is eligible for leave for the number of hours that the employee is normally scheduled to work over that period.

ELIGIBLE EMPLOYEES

In general, employees of private sector employers with fewer than 500 employees, and certain public sector employers, are eligible for up to two weeks of fully or partially paid sick leave for COVID-19 related reasons (see below). Employees who have been employed for at least 30 days prior to their leave request may be eligible for up to an additional 10 weeks of partially paid expanded family and medical leave for reason #5 below.

QUALIFYING REASONS FOR LEAVE RELATED TO COVID-19

An employee is entitled to take leave related to COVID-19 if the employee is unable to work, including unable to telework, because the employee:

- | | |
|--|--|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. is subject to a Federal, State, or local quarantine or isolation order related to COVID-19; 2. has been advised by a health care provider to self-quarantine related to COVID-19; 3. is experiencing COVID-19 symptoms and is seeking a medical diagnosis; 4. is caring for an individual subject to an order described in (1) or self-quarantine as described in (2); | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 5. is caring for his or her child whose school or place of care is closed (or child care provider is unavailable) due to COVID-19 related reasons; or 6. is experiencing any other substantially-similar condition specified by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. |

ENFORCEMENT

The U.S. Department of Labor's Wage and Hour Division (WHD) has the authority to investigate and enforce compliance with the FFCRA. Employers may not discharge, discipline, or otherwise discriminate against any employee who lawfully takes paid sick leave or expanded family and medical leave under the FFCRA, files a complaint, or institutes a proceeding under or related to this Act. Employers in violation of the provisions of the FFCRA will be subject to penalties and enforcement by WHD.

 - Loan Size: Based on the typical pre-coronavirus monthly payroll times 2.5, but not to exceed $10 million. Calculate your typical cumulative wages, salaries, commissions and tips paid (not to exceed $100,000 per worker), including benefits and payroll taxes paid, multiplied by 2.5.
 - Use of Loan Proceeds: Payroll, (including re-hiring recently laid-off employees) through June 30th 2020, interest due on mortgages that were established before Feb. 15th, any Rent due on leases signed before 2/15/2020, and utility services in place before 2/15/2020.

Using funds for payroll and to maintain your workforce is the main path to maximum debt forgiveness.
 - Emergency Economic Injury Grant and Economic Injury Disaster Loan (EIDL) recipients and those who receive loan payment relief through the Small Business Debt Relief Program are also eligible for a PPP loan, so long as there is no duplication in how the funds are used.
